September 2021 Edition

Dear Wisconsin Children's Safety Advocates:

In August 2021, the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission issued a total of 10 recalls relating to products affecting children. Attached is a summary of the releases identifying the product, the problem, and what should be done with the recalled product.

We have found that not all of the recalls are picked up by the news media as they occur. This monthly summary will give you the opportunity to review all of the children's product safety recalls for the past month. If you are interested in a complete text of the recall, click on the hyperlink at the end of the recall description. This will direct you to the recall notice located on the CPSC website.

KEEP YOUR KIDS SAFE

Release Number: (#21-176) Dollar General, of Goodlettsville, Tenn., is announcing the voluntary recall of about 155,000 True Living sling loungers. This recall involves True Living Sling Loungers sold in 2019. The loungers have white frames with solid blue or solid green fabric. The 12-digit UPC number 430001047344 is located on the receipt.

Problem: The recalled loungers can collapse unexpectedly, posing an amputation, laceration and pinching hazard if finger gets caught in the metal folding joints.

What to do: Consumers should immediately stop using the recalled sling loungers, cut the fabric of the chair rendering it unusable, and contact Dollar General to return the recalled loungers for a full refund of the purchase price. Consumers can contact Dollar General at 800-678-9258 from 6 a.m. to 1 a.m. CT Monday through Friday or online at www.dollargeneral.com and click on “Product Recalls” under “Help” at the bottom of the page for more information.

Release Number: (#21-771) And Beyond Inc., of China, is announcing the voluntary recall of about 375 Andecor girls' soft tie dye area rugs. This recall involves Andecor Girls Tie Dye Soft Area Rugs. The rectangular rugs are pastel pink, yellow, green and blue tie dye and measure about 6 feet by 9 feet. “100% Acrylic face fiber content” and “Made in China” are printed on a label on the underside of the rugs.

Problem: The recalled rugs fail to meet the federal flammability standard for carpets and rugs, posing a fire hazard.

What to do: Consumers should immediately stop using the recalled rugs and contact And Beyond for instructions on how to receive a full refund, including shipping. Amazon, on behalf of And Beyond, is contacting all known purchasers directly. Consumers can contact And Beyond by e-mail at yangguang_789@outlook.com for more information.

Release Number: (#21-772) Group Rossignol USA Inc., of Park City, Utah, is announcing the voluntary recall of about 150 Rossignol 2018 and 2019 model year all Track DH bicycles. This recall includes Rossignol 2018 and 2019 model year All Track DH bicycles. The bicycle was produced in Matte Black (2018) and Chartreuse green (2019) colors. The bicycle model name “All Track DH” is printed on the frame’s top tube.

Problem: Cracks can form at the head tube area of the bicycle, where the fork connects to the bicycle. This can cause the frame to fail and allow the fork and front wheel to unexpectedly separate from the rest of the bicycle, posing a fall hazard to riders.

What to do: Consumers should immediately stop using the recalled bicycles and contact Rossignol for information on receiving a free replacement front triangle of the bicycle frame. Rossignol is contacting all known purchasers directly to arrange for free replacement parts and installation. Consumers can contact Rossignol toll-free at 888-243-6672 from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. MT Monday through Friday, email at USRossiMtnBike@rossignol.com or online at www.rossignol.com and click on Alltrack DH Mtn Bike Recall for more information.

Release Number: (#21-189) Razor USA LLC, of Cerritos, Calif., is announcing the voluntary recall of about 237,300 Hovertrax 2.0 self-balancing scooters/hoverboards with GLW battery packs. This recall involves the removable GLW battery packs installed in UL-Listed Hovertrax 2.0 brand self-balancing scooters/hoverboards manufactured between September 2016 and August 2017. GLW's battery packs were certified as compliant with ANSI/UL Standard 2271 by UL. Hovertrax hoverboards have two wheels at either end of articulated dual platforms and are powered by GLW battery packs. The battery packs have the name GLW written in large letters on the packs themselves. The battery packs have serial numbers beginning with GLW, which is printed on a white sticker on the top of the battery pack, below the bar code. Hovertrax 2.0 is printed on the front of the hoverboard. The hoverboards were sold in black, black monochrome, blue, green, red, red monochrome, white, rose gold, camouflage, ocean blue, purple colors, and three multicolor patterns called Spectrum, Galaxy and Carbon.

Problem: The lithium-ion GLW battery packs in the self-balancing scooters/hoverboards can overheat, posing a risk of the products smoking, catching fire and/or exploding.

What to do: Consumers should immediately stop using the recalled self-balancing scooters/hoverboards and contact Razor for instructions on how to obtain a prepaid shipping carton to send the GLW battery pack back to Razor, and to receive a free replacement battery pack. Consumers can contact Razor toll-free at 866-467-2967 from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. PT Monday through Friday, or online at www.Razor.com and click on CPSC Safety Recalls for more information.
